FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 1-14-2010

Florida based disaster relief organization responds to Haiti earthquake

Harvest Time International collects relief products and monetary donations for earth quake survivors in Haiti.

Sanford, Florida 1-14-2010 Harvest Time International opens its donation distribution center for the community. A list of needed items is posted on its website www.harvest-time.org and every donation is appreciated. Besides in kind donations, monetary gifts are needed to help cover the cost for the transportation to Haiti.

Additional donation collection points for Harvest Time International and volunteer opportunities will also be published on the website.

In the effort of bringing relief to the families Harvest Time International partners with Seminole County Emergency Management as well as other organizations.

Harvest Time International distributes relief products to Haiti and other Caribbean countries on an ongoing basis and anticipates a very long recovery time for this poverty stricken country.

Donations can be dropped off Monday - Saturday 9am - 5pm at Harvest Time Internationals 100,000sf facility 225 N. Kennel Rd., Sanford FL 32771.

The disaster relief organization is also able to pick up large quantities (semi trailer loads) of products nationwide.
